COLORS INSPIRED BY NATURE

For years, all-white kitchens dominated design trends, but the all-white phase is officially over. This year it’s all about embracing color. Customers have leaned into lush, earthy hues and we’ve completed stunning renovations featuring vibrant greens and blues that create a soothing, nature inspired atmosphere.

CUSTOM COLORS

People are embracing color like never before, using it to showcase their personal style. With our custom color program, we make it easy to achieve your vision by offering all the latest trending colors. Plus using our Sherwin Williams' color match program, you can select from an endless palette of cabinet paint colors for a truly custom touch.

DESIGN TREND: TWO-TONE KITCHENS

Two-tone kitchens are here to stay. Combining tones not only creates balance through contrast but also offers texture and visual interest. Pair lighter shades on upper cabinets to create visual space with darker shades on the base & tall cabinets to anchor the room. We suggest using the accent color in three different areas to achieve a cohesive look.

Looking to achieve the perfect two-tone look or even three-tone look? Let our design experts guide you in selecting the combination for your dream kitchen.

DESIGN TREND: SLIM TRIM SHAKER

Shaker doors are timeless, but the slim trim shaker—also known as a thin or micro shaker—is a modern take on this classic style. With trim as narrow as ½ to 1 inch, it's a lighter, more streamlined option that suits a wide range of aesthetics.

Our designer Vincent Guccione says, "It's the perfect fit for someone who wants the detail of a Shaker door without the traditional heaviness."

DESIGN TREND: APPROACHABLE LUXURY

Luxury doesn’t have to be intimidating or out of reach. Approachable luxury is the thoughtful combination of affordable materials with several luxury details that elevate your kitchen without breaking the bank. From statement stone to jewelry-like knobs, you can add a touch of elegance to any space.

DESIGN TREND: BIOPHILIC DESIGN

Biophilic design enhances the harmony between indoor spaces and nature, bringing warmth and tranquility to your kitchen. Incorporate natural elements like wood and stone, maximize natural light with large windows, and introduce greenery for a fresh, organic ambiance. Live plants and natural stone backsplashes are popular ways to infuse your space with a touch of nature.

DESIGN TREND: MULTIPURPOSE ISLANDS

Kitchen islands are no longer just for prepping and dining. Multipurpose islands now feature built-in storage, seating, and even appliances like wine coolers or microwaves. They're the ultimate hub for cooking, entertaining, and everyday living.

Choose from a variety of finishes and features that suit your style—from sleek, modern islands with marble countertops to rustic, farmhouse-inspired designs with warm wood details.

DESIGN TREND: SCULLERY KITCHENS

Scullery kitchens are secondary spaces located adjacent to the main kitchen that combine butler's pantries with walk in pantries. The combination not only creates additional storage for food and dishes but also creates additional countertop space for smaller appliances and landing space for entertaining. The addition of a scullery kitchen also helps homeowners create a clutter free space while maintaining a sleek aesthetic in the main kitchen.

DESIGN TREND: NATURAL WOOD STAINS

The former popularity of stark white kitchens has left many homeowners yearning for the warmth and texture of natural wood cabinets. Our new stains of warm whiskey tones and earthy espresso browns pair perfectly with our nature inspired paints to achieve the new two toned kitchen of your dreams.

Add pops of natural wood stains to create a Two-Tone Kitchen or fully embrace the comfort and homeyness of a Natural Wood Stain Kitchen.
